Narrative by David W. Demmy: In route, Marilyn and David experienced some rough driving along US Route 30 over the mountains from Harrisburg to Ligonier during a number of heavy downpours. Stopped at the 911 memorial for Flight 93 Shenksville, PA – some photos are available at <http://news.webshots.com/photo/1207562866060701678xDZYIE>. Arrived at Ramada and we were happily greeted by front staff and shortly by banquet crew too. The staff at this Ramada was not only friendly, but more than willing to provide us with a pleasurable stay. Several times during the encampment, we took advantage of the on-site outdoor pool; we enjoyed marvelous meals on-site and downtown Ligonier too. We explored the clean, patriotic, flags-blowing-in-the-breeze-everywhere town of Ligonier. Shop keepers and vendors were among some of the friendliest we have met in our travels.

Business meetings were kept on schedule and the SUVCW men completed their daily business in record time allowing for some time to visit the town, the old Fort Ligonier, or bars and grills, by interested parties. Daily breakfast buffet was not only great, but fit the bill for busy folks. Memorial service, business sessions, visitations with the ladies of the Allied Orders and Friday night campfire programs seemed to be enjoyed by all who attended this 2008 PA encampment. A member-at-large Brother, represented Memorial Camp 300 at business meetings and participated in the election of officers for 2008.

Ah, the hotel banquet staff provided us with a fine meal for the Saturday evening banquet and the ladies of the Allied Orders provided wonderful entertainment too.

Banquet entertainment was not only a charming surprise, but was cherished by most of the encampment banquet attendees.

Dorothy Kern, wife of PDC, Lester Kern, from Carlisle, PA, is home too after emergency treatment in July.

Floyd J. Demmy had outpatient surgery in July and is back to normal activities. He will be undergoing quarterly checkups to assure Doc got all the badness out of him. Floyd recently retired again! This time from Giant Foods Inc.

Blessings to David W. Demmy, Jr. upon his recent mission trip to Cleveland, Georgia near the Tennessee border. He has sacrificed nearly all of his vacation time this decade to participate in or lead mission trips for ASP in the Appalachia regions of Virginia and West Virginia, to Katrina's dirty work in Mississippi, to the Tornado blown-away windy town of Greensburg, Kansas. See photos of his trips, Go to www . Demmy. cc

Also, our wonderful Camp secretary, Larry C. Sheibley, PCC, recently experienced major surgery and is coping with the results: no visiting cafeterias or buffets! God bless all of our members and their families in need or support.

Camp 15 Annual Picnic, July 20, 2008

The Friday before this event the Colonial Park area of Lower Paxton Township was subject to a terrific rain and heavy wind storm that knocked numerous tree limbs and debris over several miles of northern Colonial Park and the CrossPoint church campus. The Hartranft Herald staff spent the remainder of Friday and most of Saturday cleaning up the campus for churches services, day care, and the pavilion area; too include scrubbing the picnic tables for use on Sunday by camp 15 picnic goers.

Sunday was another very warm day with a light breeze. An electric fan blew air across the pavilion floor, while Commander Greg prepared charcoal for cooking purposes. Ah, the ladies in the audience marveled at how well he was organized and what a good cook he was considering he is still a (DARE WE SAY) bachelor! Look out Greg. Camp 15 thanx Commander Greg for shopping, donating the meats and for cooking the main course for us.

Sixteen of us were in attendance including two youngsters who made good use of the fenced-in playground. Mom and Dad didn't have far to run to assist with pushing Molly Deppen on the swings, or Lynn Kyle playing tin-ball tennis.

After kibitzing, and sharing anecdotes, and some discussion on the heat wave, and eating, and eating, The Demmy family shared their photo album of their recent mission trip to Greensburg, KS to assist Mennonite Relief Group of Wichita with building new homes for residents of the devastated town of Greensburg. To see far more mission trip photos than were available in the photo album, of that May 2007 EF5 tornado that destroyed 95% of the town, go to the following website: www . Demmy . cc.

A GAR lapel pin was donated by the Hartranft Herald staff and Commander Greg handled the ticket portion of the picnic to provide the old civil war relic lapel pin to a lucky winner. The winning ticket was held by Floyd Demmy. The Camp netted $50 from this effort – expect another event in the future!

During the day, the Commander Greg read a letter from Gene Mascioli, PCC, a real-life clown, who was invited out-of-state to Peru, Indiana for a clowning event parade and could not be with us today.

Commander Greg informed the group he recently sold two SUVCW license plates and the Camp received a donation for a 125th anniversary Camp history book. In addition, the members present voted on several membership applications. The Camp expects to take these and other recent new applicants into our fellowship at our general business meeting on Sunday, September 21. They are:

Donald Messersmith – Danville
John Rushoe – Muncy
Scott Debo – Sunbury
Tom Bowman – Carlisle
William Neumyer – Enola
- and -
Anthony Kline – Sunbury
Frederick Till – Lewiston
Robert Shadle – Selingsgrove
Thomas Bruner - Berrysburg
Wyatt Kohl – Northumberland

Jon and Dave Demmy joined the Camp in January of this year; therefore, all of the above will make an even dozen who have sought out Camp 15 for membership so far this year 2008.

Commander Greg announced his efforts to secure the Pennsylvania Flag Preservation site, at 10th and Market Streets, Harrisburg, for a tour by Camp 15 members and family and friends on Saturday, August 30.

The highlite of the warm picnic day occurred when a broken tree limb from the Friday afternoon storm, decided to free-fall from a tree near the pavilion, nearly hitting our Patriot Instructor, David J. Klinepeter. Prior to that near accident, Dave had planned on talking to the group for 3 or 4 hours, but quickly changed his mind. As usual, Brother Dave gave us food for thought. Camp 15 is very blessed to have Dave, not only as a member, but a walking, talking wealth of history on the GAR and SUVCW. This World War II veteran has been a wonderful blessing to all of us associated with Camp 15 of the capital city of Harrisburg.

To Hartranft Herald, “Just a pat on the back to you for a big job well done. I realize all the work you needed to do. It is a super picnic area - Maybe (we can do it) again next year (at that site). I was glad to see your dad and know he is coming along well” - - - David J. Klinepeter.

Another recent windfall for Camp 15 was the payment of $200 from Brother Mike Klinepeter for the .45-70 rifle brass. As of now, the Camp has two, .45-70 rifles on-hand for sale. Select one now, for yourself, before inflation makes it difficult for you to drive to the location to pick up your new rifle.

by Dave Klinepeter

1863 GETTYSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA 2008

Contrary to the comments of some people, I did not participate in the original Battle of Gettysburg July 1863, but I did take part in many reenactments of the Battle over the years, beginning in 1960. Took part in the 100th anniversary of the battle in July 1963, on location at the High Water Mark. Since the 1960s the battle of Gettysburg has not been reenacted on the exact location, especially Pickett's Charge, due to National Park regulations. The locations of the battle has been moved a number of times. Over the years the amount of people involved has grown by leaps and bounds. In 1963 there were about 2000-3000 troops. At the 145th there were around 13,000-14,000, troops involved. There were over 100 cannon, and 400 horses plus Sutlers and civilian reenactors. This year I portrayed a local Sheriff and assistant Sutler for my son, Mike Klinepeter (member of Camp 15 SUVCW). Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday were set up days for everyone. Friday had two battles, Saturday were three battles (there were two scheduled but at the request of 1100 Texans participating, they had an extra cavalry battle) and two battles on Sunday, with the last one being Pickett's Charge's. Each battle is scripted differently. I did get to watch the Pickett's Charge at length. The marching on to the fields and hills, through the woods, of thousands of men, the booming of 100 or more cannon for an hour and then the charge, left nothing to the imagination. The heat, the shouting and screaming, the smell of the smoke, not being able to see too well because of all the smoke and haze. It makes you realize the pure hell that boiled over on that hot deadly day in July 1863. It was a scene I will never forget.

During free time I was able to wonder around and take in the civilian sights. In the large artist tent was a booth of great interest to me. The Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War had several tables of information. Commander-in-Chief Charles Kuhns, Jr was there to greet people. I understand from him the SONS will be setting up at 5 or 6 reenactments in the future. In my other walking around I met 3 General Lee's, 2 General Grants, Jeff Davis, Simon Cameron. Also General Hancock, (our own Camp 15 SVC John Deppen)

September 17, 1862 Battle of Antietam the bloodiest battle in American History.

At the Sept meeting I will give a talk on the 100th anniversary of the Battle of Bull Run and Antietam. I served as an artilleryman at both battles. DJK

Commanders Report by Greg Kline

I hope that everyone is having a fantastic summer! I'd like to thank everyone who attended this year's picnic for all of the great food and conversation that they brought to share. It was a beautiful day and I would also like to thank David W. Demmy, Sr., once again for obtaining such a terrific site and for his assistance in the planning and preparation. We had a short meeting after the meal and voted to accept 5 new members. I am hoping to install all of them at the September general meeting.

Dave Klinepeter was unshaken by a near miss from a falling tree branch (I'll let him tell the story!) and was able to give us his usual excellent insight on the GAR boys and the history of our Order. As I sat at a table talking with Dave before lunch, I was thinking about how lucky we are to have such a living encyclopedia of SUV and GAR knowledge as [we have in] Dave.

We have no August general meeting, but will be visiting the Flag Room at the Capital on Saturday, August 30, at 1:00. We will meet at the National Civil War Museum at 12:00 to carpool downtown, to the Pennsylvania Civil War Flag Preservation Center at 10th and Market Streets downtown Harrisburg next to the Patriot-News building.

I need for anyone who is planning to attend to let me know, now, which [regimental, battery, unit etc] flag you would like to see while we are there. The staff is willing to accommodate us with a fairly large selection [of regiments] but I need to know from YOU what you would like to see. Eg: our last visit included 187th regiment among others. Please send me an email at gregsuvcw@earthlink.net or call me today or at 717-571-6877 as soon as you can so that I can give the Flag Room Staff a final list of flags to pull to have on display for our humble view and picture taking.

In Fraternity, Charity, and Loyalty, Greg.

Editor's Note: According to an article in The New York Times, March 18, 1881, regarding Pennsylvania's status of preserving Commonwealth Civil War flags, [in 1881], "General Hartranft's gallant old regiment, the 51st had the same flag all through (the war). It bears the names of all 20 battles and is thoroughly riddled". To read the entire old 1881 article, go to:
