Camp 15's next general meeting is scheduled for 2 pm, Sunday, January 20, 2008 at the National Civil War Museum. Please mark your social calendar, update outlook, or at least give Camp 15's schedule to your wife to keep track of Camp 15 activities for you to participate!

At this meeting, we plan to conduct the ceremony of installation of officers for 2008 and induction of new members into our continuing-to-grow Camp – Jon Demmy and Dave Demmy, Jr., grandsons of Brother Floyd Demmy. This year, Hartranft Camp is celebrating its 125th anniversary 1882 – 2008.

Camp 15 History Booklet

A booklet on the history of Camp 15 of Harrisburg has been an on going project since Larry C. Sheibley, PCC, was Commander! Several brothers have assisted Brother Larry in this endeavor and the Hartranft Herald is happy and proud to announce to you, our readers, that the booklet is expected to be published and available, at a very near forthcoming Camp meeting. Particulars on publishing will be discussed at January meet.

Hartranft Herald Readers

Another year has past with joy and sadness too! Camp 15 has completed another successful year with 12 issues of our newsletter, updates and upgrades to our Camp website – field trips, paid tribute to fallen veterans on Memorial Day and we have broken bread together in fellowship! We are beginning our 10th year of revitalization from several decades of inactivity meetings. We will be providing the oath of membership to our 49th and 50th members next week at our monthly January meeting and perhaps by our March monthly meeting, if not sooner, our Camp history book will be available for your reading enjoyment. 1882 – 2008.

Photos from the Past

Our National Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War website offers you the opportunity to post your Civil War ancestor(s) photo (and story) on our National website:

The Photos from the Past web page was initiated by Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War (SUVCW) Past Commander-in-Chief Keith G. Harrison, then National Webmaster, in February 1998, as a means for the members of the SUVCW and other Allied Orders of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the general public to honor and preserve the memory of the men who preserved the Union 1861 - 1865. Since then, the popularity of the page and the number of veterans listed has continued to grow.

Anyone who has photographs of their Civil War ancestor either during the Civil War or after, or photographs relating to the post Civil War veterans' organization, the Grand Army of the Republic, is welcomed to electronically submit them along with accompanying identification to the Backup National SUVCW Webmaster for inclusion on that page.

Important Notice: Large graphics (photograph) bitmap (bmp) files (100,000 bytes and larger) CANNOT BE ACCEPTED as they monopolize the recipient's email program in terms of downloading. If you have a large bmp file, you will need to obtain access to a graphics program and first reduce the size of the file and then save (convert) it to a JPG.File or gif format before sending. Your graphics file that you submit should not be any larger than 30,000 bytes.

The above photograph shows my daughter Molly and I laying wreaths and flags on the graves of Civil War veterans in Northumberland's Riverview Cemetery on Friday, December 7, 2007 as part of the Wreaths for Warriors effort. A side note - the red, white, and blue shawl Molly is wearing was handmade for her by the wife of a Vietnam veteran I know.

PATRIOTIC INSTRUCTOR/GAR HISTORIAN

by Dave Klinepeter

Politics is in the air everywhere these days. It was also a problem many years ago.

Quoting from the History of the Grand Army of the Republic published in 1889.

“Notwithstanding the unusual political excitement which prevails throughout the country, and the well-known fact that our ranks are full of active, earnest supporters of the men and measures of the several political parties, not a single violation of Art[icle] 6, chapter 5, of our Rules and Regulations, has been brought to my attention. Our Order is composed of thoughtful, patriotic men, each anxious to discharge the full measure of his duties as a citizen, according to his best judgment as to what his duty is. Fidelity to convictions begets respect for the like personal quality in others. The loyalty of comrades to the noble objects and sacred mission of our fraternity need not be and is not affected or its usefulness impaired by honest differences of opinion upon questions of governmental policy.

The use of the design of our badge for a cheap political campaign device has justly occasioned much indignation among the comrades in all sections. While unable by legal process, to prevent this attempt to degrade our non-partisan medal of honor, we can, and should by resolution, protest most earnestly and emphatically against it. No comrade who respects his fraternal vow, and no citizen other than a comrade, who respects himself, would wear this base imitation; but it seems that the action of this Encampment is necessary to quicken that sense of propriety inherent in all true Americans which appears for the time to have been comatose in a few ill advised and inconsiderate persons”. -- From the address of the Commander-in-Chief, John P. Rea, in 1888 at Columbus, Ohio.

Dates of interest

January 14, 1864 General William T. Sherman began his scorched earth march through the south. He would not allow any newspaper journalists to accompany the army.

February 1, 1862 American writer Julia Ward Howe's patriotic song "Battle Hymn of the Republic" was published in the Atlantic Monthly.

February 2, 1863 American author Samuel Clemens used the Pseudonym "Mark Twain" for the first time.

February 3, 1865 Informal peace talks at Hampton Roads, Virginia, between President Lincoln and Confederate representatives failed. Lincoln insisted on reunion of the nation and emancipation of slaves, the Confederates wanted independence.

From Brother Frank Haley, Camp Guide, who is undergoing treatments again for the ailment he endured last year: "I still get tired after the Chemo treatments. Usually don't feel like doing much. Will be going to the hospital tomorrow, Friday, January 11, for another Chemo treatment. Not looking forward to it. Don't know how many I'll have to take yet. Will be in touch. Take care"! Frank.

Brothers and Sisters, if you or your family has a situation or need for prayers, please contact the Hartranft Herald for prayers and to have your (need) shared by the Camp in prayer for you and yours.

A fellow American Donation
by John Deppen, SVC

Dear Veterans & Friends,

Civil War artist Mort Kunstler is donating at cost 31 laser-printed giclee reproductions of his work on canvas to decorate the first floor of Vaccarro Hall, formerly known as Building 38, at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington D.C. According to a report in The Civil War News, Kunstler will provide another 30 for the second floor and possibly more for a second building.

Vaccarro Hall serves as the headquarters of the Warrior Transition Brigade, made up of nearly 250 wounded soldiers and more than 40 staff who care for them. The building was recently renovated and renamed in honor of Corporal Diangelo Vaccarro of New York, who was killed after he was awarded two Silver Stars and was wounded twice as a combat medic in Iraq.

In making his donation, Kunstler said, "I'm not a warmonger, and I'm not in favor of the Iraq War, but I certainly think these guys should be cheered up in any way possible."

The report stated that Kunstler was one of three "well-known military artists" who were contacted for donations of patriotic-themed paintings. Kunstler was the only one who responded.

For more information on Kunstler and his art, visit www.mortkunstler.com.

Dear Sons Camp 15,

Greetings from The Historical Society of Montgomery County, PA! As you are aware, the Historical Society of Montgomery County owns and maintains Montgomery Cemetery in Norristown, Pennsylvania. The namesake of your camp, John F. Hartranft is buried in this Cemetery. In 2008, we will be holding services on Saturday, May 24th in observance of Memorial Day. We would like to invite a member of your camp to be present at the services and involved with a wreath laying at the gravesite. The ceremonies for the day begin at 11:00 am. We will be honoring several Generals and other veterans throughout the ceremonies, but we felt it most fitting to invite you to be a part of the honoring of Hartranft.

We realize that with busy schedules this may be hard to accommodate, but we would like to work with you if you are interested in honoring Hartranft that weekend. We are getting an early start in our event planning to ensure a wonderful and fitting tribute to our veterans. I would love to speak with you further about the day or answer any questions you may have. I know Memorial Day seems far off, but we are very excited about the upcoming year's activities and are eager to have as many interested individuals as possible be a part of the day. Thank you for your time and best wishes

Sincerely,

Michelle M. Harris
