Sue Messersmith

Camp meeting was called to order at 14:02 by Commander Deppen. Treasurer Demmy reported a balance in the checking account of $1893, noting that a large portion of this is from dues and that the state and national per capita will need to be forwarded from this fund to the Department and National. Brother Greg Kline, PCC was acting Secretary for the meeting and read the minutes. There was no correspondence to be read.

Brother David Demmy, Sr. mentioned that Brother Bob Fuller has a number of ailments and is not sure when he will be able to join us again.

Commander Deppen installed Camp 15's newest Brother, Michael Proper. Brother Kline thanked the Camp 15 membership for their great attendance at the Lincoln Luncheon. Brother Lee Walters, PDC, spoke about the Lincoln Luncheon and stated that he was very proud of Camp 15 and thanked any members who had a part in organizing the luncheon.

Brother David Demmy, Sr reported that the PA Dept. Treasurer has presented a $50 check to Camp 15 as the prize for earning the Rosenberg Award for highest camp recruiting and mentioned that Brother Greg Kline received a National award for recruiting 5 or more members.

Commander Deppen recognized Brother Ron and Helen Shireman and thanked them for accompanying him to the Norristown Cemetery for the Memorial Day observance. Helen is the Great-Granddaughter of General John F. Hartranft.

Old Business:

Commander Deppen inquired about the Linglestown Cemetery and mention was made by Brother Kline that construction was underway nearby but nothing was changed in the cemetery. No contact has been made with cemetery officials in quite a while.

Brother Don Messersmith brought numerous photos to share from his trip out west to the Lincoln Tomb and Lincoln Homestead among others. Commander Deppen announced that Brother Messersmith is soon to become a Great-Grandfather!

New Business:

Brother Greg Kline mentioned upcoming Camp events including:

- 1 the Gettysburg Memorial Day parade and
- 2 The flag decoration for Memorial Day at the Harrisburg Cemetery.

He also mentioned an ongoing course on the Battle of Gettysburg being offered at the Paxtonville United Methodist Church in Paxtonville, PA

(See additional camp events listed later in this issue of your Hartranft Herald).

Commander Deppen announced a GAR marker dedication on March 13 at the Union Church Cemetery in Hartleton, PA

Contact Brother John at his email for directions or other concerns:

Patriotic Instructor Dave Klinepeter, PCC presented the Camp with a history of various GAR badges. Numerous photos of various GAR badges were used to explain their history and the differences between them and an informative handout was passed out to everyone present. Dave spoke also on President Lincoln including the fact that he held a patent for moving boats over shoals. Dave gave everyone present a shiny Lincoln collectable penny!

(See photos later in this issue of your Hartranft Herald).

The meeting was closed by Commander Deppen at 15:18

PATRIOTIC INSTRUCTOR by Dave Klinepeter

In the February 7, 2010 Patriot News Sunday edition I read an article of importance to me and should be of interest to Hartranft Camp 15 SUVCW. "They'll march again" A mix of research, re-enactments and reaching out to the descendants of black soldiers who fought in the Civil War will culminate in re-staging of the Grand Review parade in Harrisburg, Pa this November, on 5-7, with reenactments of the grand review and exhibitions.

"It's just amazing. The whole thing is just amazing," said Ellen Brown, executive director of the Harrisburg Sesquicentennial Commission, one of several groups participating in the yearlong preparation for November's events. "This city really has made a mark on our nation. There are so many things that happened here or started here that people don't know about."

No other U.S. city held a grand review honoring the 180,000 free blacks and freed slaves who reinforced the Union army in the final two years of the Civil War, A Penn State Harrisburg project to examine the muster rolls in the State Archives has led to what could be a key part of the city's Sesquicentennial celebration." At the end of the Civil War there was a two day Grand Review parade of the UNION armies in Washington D. C. -- The black troops did not participate in the review. According to the article a number of African-American women were outraged and decided to hold their own Grand Review in Harrisburg. The parade was held November 14, 1865. It started around the now, soldiers plot area in back of the capitol, and marched down to Simon Cameron's mansion. (Secretary of War, Simon Cameron was a very early strong advocate of using black troop in the war effort.) Penna did not accept black troops till the fall of 1863 when Camp Penn opened in the Philadelphia Pa area.

I believe Camp 15 should be involved. Harrisburg had a colored GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC Post 520, named after Dr David Stevens. Camp 15 furnished the honor guard and firing squad (I was a member of that firing squad) for Ephraim Slaughter of Stevens GAR Post 520. Slaughter was the last Civil War Veteran of Harrisburg, Pa. to die. Harrisburg has an American Legion Post named after him.

BROTHER DAVE DURING HIS GAR BADGE PRESENTATION TO THE CAMP, FEBRUARY 2010.

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC MEMBERSHIP BADGES

Part 1 - The first badge adopted was a shield, upon which was engraved the insignia of the different arms of the army, the navy, and flags; also the letters 3. B. N. -- G. A. R., meaning "THIRD BATTALION" Grand Army of the Republic. (From the History of George Meade Post No One, Dept of Penna GAR Philadelphia 1889).

FIRST GAR MEMBERSHIP BADGE

The badge was adopted in 1866 and used till 1869. The Grand Army Badge Company of Lafayette, Indiana was formed specifically for the manufacture of this GAR membership badge. The first ad in the Great Republic newspaper in Feb 1867, announced that the Grand Army Badge Company was the exclusive manufacturer of the 3 BN design badge. The first badges were made in two sizes, one about 1/2 inches high and the other almost one inch. The ad also stated the badges could be furnished Silver-plated, genuine Silver, heavily Gold plated or genuine Solid gold. A third ad placed in 1867 added that measures have been taken by the GAR Badge Company to secure a patent for their design, which is adopted as the Badge of the Order, and all persons are hereby forbidden to manufacture or sell any Badge, pin or other article of jewelry bearing such emblem, unless authorized by the Company. The B. T. Hayward Company of New York had started making enamel 3BN badges and advertising widely. A 3BN ribbon was also being manufactured for Departments and Posts. A number of jewelers were making hand engraved copies of the badge. (At one time I had in my own collection a beautiful Gold stickpin engraved with the 3BN badge on it.)

Displayed next is the Type 2 membership badge change which was authorized in 1868. A large spread eagle was attached to the top of the original badge.

Very few of these were ever made. This badge is much harder to find than even the original 3BN badge. In 1869 the GAR membership badge was completely changed.

The link above is a virtual wall of all those lost during the Vietnam War with the names, bio's and other information on our lost heroes. Those who remember that timeframe, or perhaps lost friends or family can look them up on this site. Pass the link on to others if you desire!

Select a name of a State and click on the state. When it opens, scroll down to the city and the names will appear. Then click on their names. It should show you a picture of the person, or at least their bio and medals.

This really is an amazing web site. Someone spent a lot of time and effort to create it.

... Hope that everyone who reads this appreciates what those who served in Vietnam sacrificed for our country.

>Dedication Ceremony to Honor a Union County Native Who Became a Civil War Housekeeper and Nurse – Saturday, March 13, 2010: On Saturday, March 13th at 11:00, Hartleton native, Melinda Spigelmyer will receive a long overdue honor. The Grand Army of the Republic (GAR) flag marker will be placed on her grave in the Union Church Cemetery on Catherine Street in Hartleton, Pennsylvania. The marker is a tribute from the GAR, the organization founded to honor Civil War Veterans and is being donated by The Mifflinburg American Legion Post courtesy of Hall Solomon.

Miss Spigelmyer was one of the nurses featured in the recently released book, Not Frail Flowers and she served in St. Elizabeth's Hospital for the Criminally Insane which is located in Washington, D.C.

The service will be conducted at her graveside and local historian, John Deppen, portraying General Winfield Scott Hancock, will be leading the ceremony.

Members of the Sons of Union Veterans Hartranft Camp #15, Harrisburg will be providing the color guard. In 1881 the Grand Army of the Republic formed the Sons of Veterans of the United States of America (SV) to carry on its traditions. In 1925 the SV name was changed to Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War and is legally recognized as the heir to and representative of the Grand Army of the Republic. The SUVCW, along with the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, are two of the five Allied Orders of the GAR.

Kathleen Shafer, representing the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, the Annabella Vorse Clark Tent #60 as well as the Daughters of the American Revolution, Shikelimo Chapter will also be participating.

Readings will be provided by the Regina Hartman Society, Children of the American Revolution. The 18th North Carolina Infantry led by Lt. Col. Jeffrey Swanger, Battery B, 3rd Pa Light Artillery led by Capt. Richard Koontz and South Mountain Horse Artillery, led by Capt. David Pultynovich will be providing military honors. The ceremony will be solemnized by the blowing of Taps by Private Ronald Cryder, Battery B, 3rd Pa Light artillery. The Borough, which maintains the Union Church Cemetery, will be represented by Gary Loss, Borough Council President. The ceremony is free and open to the public. For more information please contact Linda Estupinan Snook at 570-966-5052.

>Award for honorable citizen

Sunbury Lodge #267 of The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks (BPOE) of the United States of America will present its Citizen of the Year Award on Saturday, March 27 to....John Deppen. I received a phone call from Mr. Bill Troutman on the evening of Tuesday, March 2 informing me of the news, and inviting my family and I to dinner at the Sunbury Elks, located on 26 South Second Street.

This award is deeply gratifying to me for several reasons, not the least of which is the fact that my grandmother, Arlene Deppen, was a member of this Lodge for many years before her death in 1983. My grandmother's work ethic and generosity played a significant role in my life - were it not for her, I likely would not have been able to afford to attend Juniata College in Huntingdon, where I received my Bachelor of Arts in Peace & Conflict Studies.

This news follows on the heels of the equally satisfying announcement that the Sunbury Rotary is awarding its Citizen of the Year Award to my friends and fellow church members, Steve & Connie Lenig of Northumberland. For 20 years, Steve & Connie have been the key leaders of Elijah's Bowl, a weekly soup kitchen held at our church, the First Presbyterian Church of Sunbury, located on Market Street. Steve & Connie are two of the finest examples of Christ's love in action. Steve handles much of the "quartermaster" duties, obtaining donated food and supplies, while Connie oversees the kitchen and food preparation. Connie is also one of our most passionate prayer warriors, ministering to the less fortunate and less able.

While Steve & Connie's award is public knowledge, mine is not as of yet. I need to complete a questionnaire from the Elks, and they will want to do their own press release, which will be forthcoming in the next couple of weeks.

Having visited the website of The BPOE, I am very impressed with their commitment to veterans and our heritage. I know from past experience that the Sunbury Elks holds an annual Flag Day commemoration in June, an event that coincides with the city's Love-n-Care Street Fair for Sunbury Community Hospital. I spoke at this event a few years ago, and helped to fold the presentation flag.

Yours in Fraternity, Charity, & Loyalty,
John Deppen, Camp Commander
