Memorial Day

Formerly known as Decoration Day

Decoration Day, [a day to honor our Civil War 1861 – 1865 dead], as it was most widely called, was a day for ceremonials and for carrying flowers to soldiers' graves. Our nation still marks this day by having the President lay a wreath on the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery.

As new conflicts broke out and claimed more soldiers, marines, and sailor lives, the Decoration Day services were extended to include those war-dead as well. The parades and speeches devoted themselves not just to those fallen in the War-Between-the-States, but to include the lost lives from World War I, the War to End All Wars. When that proved untrue, the celebrations extended to the dead from World War II as well. Now we all recognize that the day is separate from the conflicts and honor all men and women who fell in the service of the country.

There is dispute about who started Memorial Day. Some say it was in Boalsburg, Pennsylvania, and others point to the celebration in Richmond, Virginia. The U.S. Government has officially named Waterloo, New York as the starting place; that town celebrated a Decoration Day on May 5, 1865.

General John A. Logan, who served the Union during the civil war, was a Republican congressman from the State of Illinois. (He was the Republican candidate for vice president in 1884!) He also was active in many veterans' organizations.

In 1868, General Logan, then Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic (an organization of Union veterans), declared May 30th as the day to honor the fallen Union soldiers. Some people believe that date was chosen because it was "The Day of Ashes" in France, marking the day that Napoleon's remains were returned to France after his death on St. Helena.

Father,

God bless all my friends and loved ones in whatever it is that you know they may be needing this day! And may their life be full of your peace, prosperity and power as he/she seeks to have a closer relationship with you. Amen.

Events to Commemorate 150th Anniversary of the Civil War in Pennsylvania!

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will be hosting a series of events and activities this spring and summer to commemorate the role of the state in the American Civil War, Rep. Ron Marsico (R-Lower Paxton) said today.

This year marks the 150th anniversary of the beginning of the conflict. The historic battle of Gettysburg served as a major turning point of the war in the summer of 1863. Some of the events featured include performances on the role of various groups in the Civil War, plays centered on Civil War stories and related topics, parades and reenactments.

For a complete list of commemorative events in the area, visit RonMarsico.com and click on "PA Civil War 150".

Brothers, I belong to a circus model builders group where I and my fellow builders display circus models in different scale size. I work in HO scale. Our group has 2 display dates. The first display will be held at the Antique Auto Museum on Route 39, Hershey, PA, Monday 23 thru Thursday May 2. The second event will be at the York Fair in Memorial Hall, Sunday September 18.

I believe you and your family just might enjoy viewing the circus lot in a smaller version from the actual circus in days gone by. Submitted by P. Gene Mascioli, PCC.

Sunday 17 April 2011 - Meeting called to order @ 2:03 p.m.

Following the opening ritual ceremonies, Commander Deppen called the meeting to order; Secretary Sheibley read the minutes; and Dave Demmy, Jr., stated that we will have about $200 in the treasury after payments of the PA departmental and national dues. The camp will be submitting donation to National Civil War Museum for the curator's Walk from Fredericksburg, VA to Harrisburg, PA. See February camp newsletter page 2.

Our commander gave a pitch for recruiting new members. The secretary read a letter from the PA Department Patriotic Instructor requesting a $15-$20 donation from each camp. More information is needed and the secretary will write a letter of inquiry. The secretary reminded everyone that departmental dues just increased two dollars per person. General Order #14 requesting a discussion of the shelling of Fort Sumter was read. The Camp 15 Facebook page will be ready by Easter week-end. Memorial Day events were reviewed.

Commander Deppen stated that Eileen Santori of the Montgomery County Historical Society informed him that a rosebush was planted in the Norristown Cemetery in memory of Norman Houser, a brother of Camp 15 who died this year.

The up-dated by-laws were distributed and discussed, especially II, 5 dealing with liability. Brother Bowman moved that they be accepted as written; seconded by Brother Mascioli. The motion passed.

Commander Deppen showed the Sunbury Daily Item, a newspaper with a 150th Civil War Commemorative Edition. Secretary Sheibley reminded all brothers that a credentials card is necessary for the upcoming encampments. Four books were donated to the exchange program.

In order to encourage more member participation, Patriotic Instructor Klinepeter asked all Camp 15 brothers to bring articles, artifacts, and/or photographs of our veteran relatives from any American war. He spoke of the April 12 Harrisburg Capitol Civil War kick-off and the PA Civil War touring tractor-trailer display. He showed the Fort Sumter and First Battle of Bull Run postage stamps and drew two winners for sets of stamps: Dave Demmy, Jr., and Floyd Demmy, his grandfather.

Brother Floyd Demmy mentioned the story of Governor Andrew Curtin in the Sunday Harrisburg Patriot News. He suggested that our own Gov. Curtin, Dave Klinepeter, could give a presentation. Brother Walters suggested that someone contact Brother Readshaw to see if we can be involved with any of his Civil War campaigns.

The meeting closed at 3:33 pm.

Larry Sheibley-Beasom, PCC
Camp 15 Secretary, SUVCW

Memorial Day Parades Reminder:

Camp 15 will be participating in two Memorial Day Parades this year, in Hershey and Gettysburg.

The Hershey Memorial Day parade forms up between 8:00 and 9:00 and steps off at 10:00. It should last for an hour or so. So far, we have 2 Brothers, including myself, who have committed to march. I'm hoping we can have more participation since we've waited so long to be in a local parade.

Keep in mind that you don't have to be in military uniform to march. I will be glad to meet up and provide transportation for those willing to join us.

The Gettysburg Memorial Day parade forms at 1:00 on Lefever St and steps off at 2:00. A ceremony follows in the National Cemetery which always includes a very impressive speaker. Neil Armstrong was the speaker a few years ago!

Camp 15 Recruiting Table at the National Civil War Museum FREE Community Day on June 18:

Camp 15 will have a recruiting table at the free Community Day at the National Civil War Museum on Saturday, June 18 from 10AM to 5PM. We will have an 8 foot table inside the rotunda. Greg Kline and David Demmy have started coming up with ideas for the display table and we welcome your input. Please let Greg Kline, David Demmy, Commander Deppen or JVC Debo know if you can volunteer to man the table for even an hour or two. The museum expects 500 to 800 visitors that day so it should be an excellent recruiting opportunity!

For more information on either parade please contact Greg Kline at gregsuvcw@yahoo.com

or at 717-571-6877

Also camp commander, John Deppen, will be traveling to Gen. John F. Hartranft site in Montgomery County! Any one desiring more data on traveling to Montgomery, please contact commander at (570) 473-0390 or generalwsh@aol.com.

The movement to memorialize the sacrifice of Dauphin County veterans in the Civil War began in January 1867 when the General Assembly approved an act to incorporate the Dauphin County Soldiers' Monument Association:

Harrisburg's memorial to the soldiers and sailors who gave their lives to preserve the Union took the form of an Egyptian obelisk of Susquehanna granite. It was designed by a local architect, E. Worall Hudson, who was paid $100 for his services. Constructed in 1866-67, it enhanced the intersection of Second and State streets for ninety years. Increasing automobile traffic and numerous accidents caused its removal to the present site at Fourth and Division streets.

Today, it rests at 4th and Division Streets overlooking Italian Lake in uptown Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH TUESDAY

MAY 30, 1916

WITH BARED HEAD, CITY PAYS TRIBUTE TO THINNING LINES OF NATION'S HEROES

"Five Minutes For Memories" Teaches Lesson of Patriotism and Heroism to Thousands Throughout' the State; Fighters of Fifty Years Ago Step by Undaunted in Spirit
Though Bent With Age; Impressive Ceremonies Mark Services Where "Little Green tents" Stand Ever So Silent

*All Harrisburg today stood with head bared while the survivors of America's greatest lesson in preparedness trudged by with the Flag. The "thin blue line" wavered just a little more perhaps than in years gone by, and the ranks were not so full and compact; but then the green mounds in the cemeteries toward which the procession moved were more numerous than a year ago and the year before. Memorial Day was just another year nearer to the day of memories only. That did not prevent the blue clad fighters of 50 years ago from stepping along any the less gamely;
they cheerfully grinned at the combined efforts of the over zealous weatherman and the grave old Man with the Scythe and tramped past---inspirit at least---with the same vigor that won that first Grand Review after Appomattox a place in history.*

"WHEN THEY REMEMBERED"

For just five minutes today the scores of Grand Army men in Harrisburg "remembered" with some 18,000 fellow fighters through out the State, the fellows who fought with them some 50 years ago and in whose memory flowers were strewn and salutes were fired and "taps" were called today. This was at noon when in response to the State Commander' general order Grand Army men through out Pennsylvania bared their heads and gave "five minutes to memories". The finishing touches to the big day's program were completed last evening and early this morning. Everybody was busy, as could be around the quarters of Post 58 and Post 116

and Post 520 while the Sons of Union Veterans and the Spanish War Veterans and the Veterans of foreign services had their hands equally full.

Just a word about the cemeteries too. Hundreds of people crowded the burial grounds and when the sun went down in the evening, the quietest section of the city showed the results of loving care

*****

We will not think of them as dead
Those comrades brave and true.
But just passing on to a fairer land
Our eyes may not yet view,
But bye and bye, 'twill not be long,
They'll stand in line again
And touch elbow soldier like,
The same as mortal men,
Ere long we'll meet one and all
In that great Grand Review
And clasp the hand of everyone
Who ever wore the Blue
(Bessie Cummings, National Chaplain WRC 1947)

SPECIAL NOTE FROM PATRIOTIC
INSTRUCTOR

When it comes to the part in our meeting that is "GOOD OF THE ORDER", (this is not just for the Patriotic Instructor to talk. but other members can take part in the program.)
So, for the May meeting, in honor of Memorial Day I would like to have a VETERANS' SHOW AND TELL, OR JUST TELL. I am asking each member to participate by telling us about a Veteran of any war, himself, a relation, a friend, a neighbor, someone they know. I will have a table set up if you would like to bring some artifacts or pictures to show. I am looking forward to listening to your stories. ---
