Come to our general meetings and view central Pennsylvania from high atop Reservoir Park!

A newsletter for, about, and by the members of Camp 15 and Auxiliary 7.

Come One, Come All - Ladies and Brothers, and Family & Friends, all are welcome to our Camp meetings at the National Civil War Museum and field trips at-large -- Bring your camera!

This Hartranft Herald is draped in remembrance of the passing of Past National President Eileen Coombs. Sister Coombs passed away on 20 September 2011 at the age of 86. She was a member of the ASUVCW for 70 years and served in various capacities in the Department of Maine, including Department President. She served as ASUVCW National President in 1971. To all concerned personnel, Camp 15's next business meeting will be held on at 2pm Sunday, October 16, 2011 at National Civil War Museum, upper level room 222.

Keynote speaker will be our camp webmaster,

Dave Demmy, Jr, who will discuss U.S. Flag etiquette and display.

Dave participated in the ABC TV Extreme Makeover show in June 2011.

The series is moving from Sunday nights to Friday. The show he worked on will be the 2 hour Premier show for the Friday night 8 pm schedule. According to recent authority, Friday October 21st is supposed to be the air date for the Keefer Family makeover episode! At 7:30 pm, the local ABC TV 27 will air their background report on this local event.

Brother Dave has also completed 3 church orientated mission trips this year and the year is not over. In fact he returned home on a Saturday from one of the mission trips and the next day reported for duty for the extreme makeover week long event.

If you expect to catch a glimpse of Dave on TV, don't get excited. He worked the night shift from 8pm to 8am and did not have much involvement with the filming process. If you still desire to play "where's waldo" and hunt for him in the crowd, he was one of the few from the contractor's team wearing a grey polo shirt and blue hard hat. [see photo above]. The general volunteers were in blue t-shirts and white hard hats. Here's a hint -- during the first day sendoff for the family, he would be approximately 3 to the right and 3 back from the wheelchair young Keefer uses every day.

A note from Department JVC Doug McMillin, PCC, Gettysburg 112: at September camp meeting of Camp 503 Sunbury, "I presented the National Rippey award for the most outstanding new camp to J.P.S. Gobin Camp #503 today at their regular meeting. The award was originally presented by CnC Schall at the 2011 National Encampment. It was an honor to be the courier to bring a well deserved award to a remarkable new camp." While there, they inducted 3 new brothers. Camp #503 is truly an example for all camps to follow.

PATRIOTIC INSTRUCTOR by Dave Klinepeter

On August 26, 2011 Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War Commander in Chief, Donald D. Palmer issued General Order #1. In it he stated, my focus this year will be on working toward a vision of what our Order should look like by the end of the decade. This vision is: "to be recognized by Government, academia and the general public as the leading source of information pertaining to: (1) history, genealogy and preservation initiatives associated with the GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC and the Soldiers, Sailors and Marines who fought to preserve the Union and (2) patriotism, the duties of citizenship and honoring those that made the supreme sacrifice in defense of the Nation."

*I refer to it as "VISION 2020". This vision feeds off of our mission as defined by our Federal Charter. It focuses on outreach and growth rather than contraction and inward progression. But this cannot be my vision only, in order for it to become a reality, it must be a shared vision, with Departments and CAMPS adopting it as well. In addition, my successors must also be committed to seeing it through. Over the next several months, I will be working with the various officers and committees to develop a long term plan to help us achieve Vision 2020. This plan will involve organizational growth, data collection and research, development of youth programs, collaboration between the ALLIED Orders and developing sound financial strategy.******

WHERE WILL HARTRANFT CAMP 15 FIT IN THE "VISION 2020" PROGRAM???

In my article on the 100 Anniversary of the Battle of Bull Run, last month, I forgot a small paragraph.

See the lines "On firing our cannon we were not pleased with the sound of woomp, it did not have the expected boom. We needed to figure something out for the next day."*** add**Saturday I was assigned the limber chest to hand out the powder charges. On lifting the lid for the first charge I saw a roll of 1 inch masking tape so proceeded to wrap TWO powder charges together. On discharging the cannon there was a very fine "BOOM", AND IT ROSE A FOOT IN THE AIR AND ROLLED BACK ABOUT 4 FEET. Now that was cannon in action. We just did not fire quite as many rounds. It seems when the powder charges were being made up the folks forgot we were shooting a 10 pponder and most of the other cannons were 6 pounders.

"The field upon which we now stand will be known as classic ground, for here has been the great central point of the organization of our military forces. When my administration of public affairs will have been forgotten and the good and evil will be known to the investigation of the antiquarian, CAMP CURTIN, with its memories and associations, will be immortal."

GAR HISTORIAN by Dave Klinepeter 2011

Lately I have been listening to some Civil War music CDs, which prompted me to look up the words to several of them. Having been in numerous reenactments and sat around many a camp fire made me think of the feelings and emotions of the Civil War soldier on the night before the battle. Imagine yourself in his place as they sang:

"JUST BEFORE THE BATTLE MOTHER" by George F. Root

Just before the battle, Mother, I am thinking most of you.

While upon the field we're watching, with the enemy in view.

Comrades brave are 'round me lying, filled with thoughts of home and God:

For well they know that on the morrow, some will sleep beneath the sod.

CHORUS

Farewell, Mother, you may never press me to your breast again:

But, oh, you'll not forget me, Mother, if I'm numbered with the slain

Oh, I long to see you, Mother, and the loving ones at home,

But I'll never leave our banner till in honor I can come.

Tell the traitors all around you that their cruel words we know,

In every battle kill our soldiers by the help they give the foe.

CHORUS

Hark! I hear the bugles sounding, 'tis the signal for the fight,

Now, may God protect us, Mother, as He ever does the right.

Hear "The Battle Cry of Freedom," how it swells upon the air,

Oh, yes, we'll rally 'round the standard, or we'll nobly perish there.

CHORUS

Music has played a very strong part in all our wars! --- DJK
