"Above item from Banner 1959; Blatt above was brother-n-law to famous Pennsylvanian and PCinC, John Runkle; Kramer above was the glue that held Camp 15 together during the lean years.

In 1956 at the 75th annual National Encampment held at Harrisburg, PA, it was announced that President Eisenhower on July 29, signed Public Law 851, providing our national motto: "In God We Trust". And Public Law 730 provided to each surviving Veteran of the "War between the States" a medal.

The SUVCW National Headquarters office is in the National Civil War Museum in Harrisburg, PA. The building was begun in spring, 1996, and was opened 12 February 2001.

The first Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War Harrisburg camp was organized and instituted 11 February 1882. It was known as Joseph Liness Camp #15 of the Pennsylvania Eastern Division, Sons of Veterans, U.S.A. At that time, Pennsylvania was divided into two divisions known as Eastern and Western. Later, Liness became the Hartranft Camp."

IN THE BEGINNING by Dave Klinepeter

A while back Brother David Demmy Sr. asked me how I met Major John H. Runkle and became active in the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil.

My memory is a bit shaky but I will try and answer that question. I will go back to the Sunday before Memorial Day in 1941. The local communities of Penbrook and Progress always held their Memorial Day service the Sunday before May 30th (in those days Memorial Day was held on the exact date. At the time I was 15 years old and had a strong interest in our American history, especially the Civil War period. I decided to go and watch the veteran's parade. There were several school bands the V.F.W, American Legion, several WWI veterans in autos, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and other citizens in the line of march. The last organization in the line was the Sons of Union Veterans Fife and Drum Corp from the Harrisburg, Pa area. I naturally followed the parade into the East Harrisburg Cemetery [along Herr Street] for services. It was very impressive. The Drum Corp played Civil War songs, Lincoln's Gettysburg Address was read by a school student, General Logan's order Number 11 was read, followed by a main speaker; than the firing over the graves and Taps. As Major Runkle was loading the equipment in the cars I approached and told him of my interest in Civil War history. As luck would have it, he lived on 24th street and I lived on 29 street in Penbrook, so he invited me to his house the next evening. I went to his home and sat in the side yard and we talked. He filled me in on the Drum Corp, inviting me to join, told me about Memorial Day plans. It seems the official name of the Drum Corp was 6th Infantry Field Music Penna Brigade, Sons of Veterans Reserves. (It was not a Sons of Union Veterans Camp, they are separate). Major Runkle took me in the house gave me a kepi, dark blue shirt, dark blue pants, white belt and handed me a fife. I told him I could not play a fife, He said, "Till I learn", just whistle across the top. He had learned I marched with the Boy Scouts and the school band so he invited me to march with the Drum Corp in the Harrisburg Memorial Day morning parade. WOW I accepted the offer. Little did I know what I was getting into. I rode into the parade with Major Runkle (the first of many many parades).

After the parade we went to Reservoir Park where the Auxiliary to the SUVCW served lunch.

The Sons of Veterans from Middletown came up for lunch and then we all went to Paxtang for another parade. The following Sunday we went to the west shore. It seems they would have their Memorial Day services the Sunday after. This was the Enola and West Fairview. Veteran's parade. I was a member of the Sons of Veterans Reserve for several years. When I became old enough, I had to join the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War to maintain my membership in the Sons of Veterans Reserve. As mentioned they are two separate groups. My date of admission into the Sons of Union Veterans July 9, 1943! as Secretary, John H. Runkle, signed my certificate.

The National Civil War Museum news

Our Late Brother Larry Sheibley, PCC and past Camp secretary, bequeath a healthy amount of funds to Hartranft Camp 15! On Wednesday, January 24, 2018, secretary Greg Kline and Treasurer, David Demmy, Sr., visited AAA shop and had documentation notarized for Larry's attorney to further along the process of issuing the funds to Camp 15. In the meantime, Camp Council, Scott Debo, PCC, Tony Kline and PCC Jeff Smith, are working out the details of how the Camp should invest the funds for the future well-being of the Camp and its brotherhood of members. E.g., purchase a CD; set aside funds for quick access; purchase something in Larry's memory..... More data to be announced by Camp council at a meeting near you.

Patriotic Instructor:

Patriotic Instructor Jeff Smith gave a very interesting presentation relating to the economics of the Civil War. He discussed the monetary cost of the war effort to the Federal government, amounting to $2.5 million per day as well as the incredible inflation rates experienced by both sides but the Southern states in particular. He displayed some wonderful currency and coin artifacts and discussed their relationship to the lack of a National Bank in the early history of the United States, the abundance of privately issued paper and metal currency and the Currency Act of 1864 which forever ended the production of private currency in the U.S. This was Brother Jeff's first presentation as Camp Patriotic Instructor and he did a great job!

The meeting was closed by Commander Swanger at 4:04 PM
